

TRAUMA

WHAT IS TRAUMA?

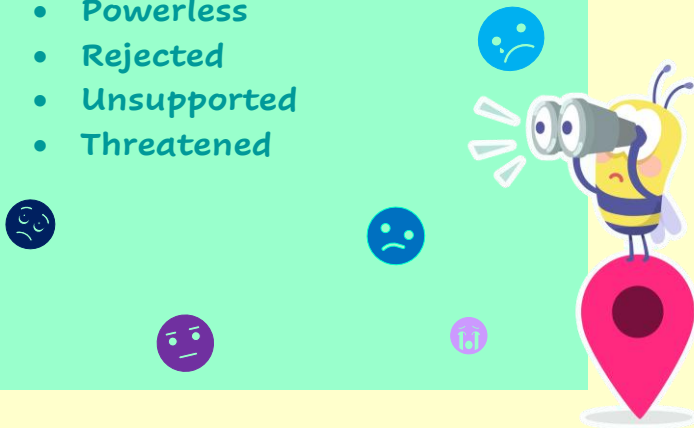

At any age, we can experience stressful or distressing events, and this can be referred to as experiencing trauma.

We all will react differently, and we may react immediately or sometime after, but trauma can cause long-lasting harm, e.g., PTSD.

WHAT MIGHT I FEEL OR EXPERIENCE?

Feelings and Experiences are unique to each person. Below are some examples of what you could feel:

- Frightened
- Unsafe
- Abandoned
- Powerless
- Rejected
- Unsupported
- Threatened

WHEN WILL I FEEL BETTER?

There is no time on when we can feel better after a traumatic event but your reactions to trauma are normal, and it is ok to ask for help when you need.

REMEMBER!

“Trauma creates change you do not choose. Healing creates change you do choose.”

– Michele Rosenthal.

TRAUMATIC EVENTS

Traumatic events can be positive or negative experiences and range in severity. Some of these experiences occur on a semi-regular basis and others only once.

No matter who we are, we can all be subject to traumatic events. These events can be different for each individual.

The signs listed are just a small example. Everyone will be different in how they react and feel after experiencing a trauma.

HOW CAN I HELP MYSELF IF I HAVE EXPERIENCED A TRAUMA?

1. STAY ACTIVE – PHYSICALLY AND MENTALLY.
2. EAT AND SLEEP – TRY AND EAT HEALTHY AND GET ENOUGH SLEEP.
3. BREATHING – PRACTICE BREATHING TECHNIQUES REGULARLY AND WHEN YOU FEEL ANXIOUS OR FRIGHTENED.
4. EXPRESS FEELINGS – SOMETIMES IT'S HARD TO TALK BUT YOU CAN EXPRESS FEELINGS THROUGH WRITING, DRAWING, MUSIC OR EVEN EXERCISE.
5. FIND SUPPORT – KEEP IN TOUCH WITH FAMILY AND FRIENDS. TALK TO PEOPLE, EVEN IF IT IS JUST A SIMPLE CONVERSATION.

SELF-CARE

Self-care is extremely important. It is all about taking time out to look after yourself.

Taking care of yourself mentally and physically can be beneficial by identify some distractions to the grief and emotions you are feeling.
